

VanHoutte Spirea

A photograph of a VanHoutte Spirea bush in full bloom. The bush is covered in numerous small, white, five-petaled flowers. It is situated in a garden area with a wooden fence in the background and a green lawn in the foreground. The overall scene is bright and sunny.

- Commonly Known as Bridal Wreath
- Vase Shaped Grower
- Arching Branch Structure
- Tiny White Flowers in April
- GROWTH: 5-8 FT. TALL AND 7-10 FT. WIDE